

'Arabi - Arts and Cultures Series from the Middle East and North Africa

Arab Heritage Learning offers one of its courses from October 2018 to May 2019 taught by Lead Teacher Samia Touati, Sundays 10-1 pm.

Participants will learn about arts, cultures, languages and histories from the Arab world, recite poems, learn speaking, reading, listening and writing skills, sing nasheed, cook Arabian cuisine and learn about Arabian celebrations. Participants will present their celebration of learning.

Courtesy of Samia Touati. Left: "Letter Sh - Shams (Arabic for Sun), 'Arabi Cultural and Artistic Series 2016. Created by participants at Exploris Elementary School, Raleigh

Right: Created by participants at Emerson Waldorf School, Chapel Hill and AHL participants in Raleigh.

October 28	Stories from the Quran and Arab world, grammar, arts, cooking
November 4, 11, 18, 2	Poetry, Grammar, arts, cooking
December 2, 9, 16	Creative writing, speaking, grammar, arts, cooking
December 23, 30	Winter Break
January 6, 13, 20, 27	Stories about Arab leaders, grammar, arts, cooking
February 10, 17, 24	Stories on ancient Arabian cities, grammar, arts, cooking
March 3, 10, 17, 31	Arabic writing, grammar, arts, cooking
April 7, 14, 21	Preparation for presentation of learning, field trip
May 5, 12	Make up sessions
May 26	Presentation of learning, date and place to be confirmed

Cost: $35 including material fee per session or discounted fee $30 (total of $810) for the year-long course, payable monthly. Space is limited Registration open: <http://bit.ly/ArabiCourse2018-19>

Raleigh course location will be shared after registration

For inquiries, contact Samia Touati: samia@ArabHeritageLearning.org 919 756 4510